DePauw University

GREENCASTLE, IND.

J. P. D. JOHN, D. D., President.

THE UNIVERSITY IS COMPOSED OF THE FOLLOWING SCHOOLS:

1. The Asbury College of Liberal Arts.
2. The School of Theology.
3. The School of Law.
4. The School of Military Science.
5. The School of Music.
6. The School of Art.
7. The Preparatory School.
8. Summer School—June 19 to July 28.

THE incidental fees are very reasonable. The number of students is about 1,000. Number in the Faculty 60. Excellent religious influence. Fine libraries, laboratories, museum and observatory. One-half the contingent fee remitted to the sons and daughters of ministers in charge of a congregation. Graduates from the Commissioned High Schools of Indiana admitted, without examination, on their certificates for work accomplished. Total expense for incidental fee, room and board for the college year of 36 weeks need not exceed $160. Many students get through at less expense.

Send for the new Year Book, to be issued May 15th.

Fall semester opens September 19th.

For definite information concerning any of the schools, address the Deans of the respective schools or the President of the University.

JOURNAL.

First Day.

Bluffton, Ind., Wednesday, April 4, 1894.

The North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church opened its Fifty-first Session in the city of Bluffton, Ind., at 8.30 A. M., April 4th, 1894, Bishop Daniel A. Goodsell, presiding. Chaplain McCabe gave out Hymn No. 759,

"O thou in whose presence my soul takes delight," after the singing of which, Bishop Goodsell gave out the 798th Hymn,

"And are we yet alive."

Prayer was offered by Chaplain McCabe.

The Bishop then read from the fortieth chapter of the Prophecy of Isaiah, beginning with the ninth verse, and from the Second Epistle of Paul to the Ephesians.

The Conference then sang:

"Blest be the tie that binds."

The Bishop then consecrated and administered the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, assisted by the Presiding Elders and others, after which the Bishop greeted the Conference with kindly words.

Roll.—The roll was called by the Secretary of the last session, and the following responded to their names:

W. J. Vigus.
D. H. Guild.
J. E. Ervin.

A motion was made to lay the same on the table, which was lost. After considerable discussion, the previous question was ordered, and the resolution passed.

The following resolution was presented and adopted.

Resolved, That we, as a Conference, have no desire to antagonize, but will give encouragement to any and all temperance organizations and workers for the destruction of the saloon, and give help to accomplish the great work of Constitutional Prohibition in our State and in all the land.

R. D. Spellman.
G. B. Work.

Statistical Secretary's Account.—The Statistical Secretary presented a bill of $11.50 for blanks, postage, etc., which was ordered paid; and, on motion, a collection was taken for the purpose.

William Peck.—The case of William Peck was referred to the Committee on Conference Relations, and the committee was excused to consider the case.

Adjournment.—On motion, after calling the committees and announcements, Conference adjourned, Reuben Toby pronouncing the Benediction.

Evening Session.

The Conference met, according to adjournment, at 7:30 P. M., Bishop Goodsell in the Chair. The Bishop announced Hymn 491,

"Love divine, all love excelling," and Almon Greenman led in prayer.

Journal.—The Journal of the morning and afternoon sessions was read and approved.

Triers of Appeal.—The following were nominated, and elected by the Conference as Triers of Appeals: G. N. Eldridge, B. A. Kemp, C. E. Disbro, G. H. Hill, E. F. Hasty, F. T. Simpson, Milton Mahin.

Twenty-sixth Question.—The Twenty-sixth Question was called—"What is the Aggregate of the Benevolent Collections as Reported by the Conference Treasurer?" Answer, $36,108.00.

Twenty-seventh Question.—The Twenty-seventh Question was called—"What are the Claims on the Conference Fund?" Answer, $15,100.00.

Twenty-eighth Question.—The Twenty-eighth Question was called—"What has been Received on these Claims, and How has it been Applied?" Answer, $7,775.00 distributed to Conference Claimants as per Stewards' Report. (See Report.)

Reports.—The report of the Committee on Education was read and adopted. (See Report.)

The report of the Committee on Epworth League was read and adopted. (See Report.)

The report of the Committee on Popular Amusements was read and adopted. (See Report.)

The Report of the Committee to Nominate Standing Committees for 1895 was read and received. (See List.)

The Committee on Wesley Hospital made report. E. L. Semans moved that all that part beginning with resolutions be stricken out of the report. Moved, as a substitute, by Chauncey King, that the words "as soon as possible" be inserted after the words "to subscribe." The substitute was, on motion, laid on the table. The amendment of E. L. Semans was then passed, and the report adopted as amended. (See Report.)

The Committee on Freedman's Aid and Southern Education Society made report, which was adopted. (See Report.)

The report of the Committee on Apportionment of Benevolences to the Districts was read and adopted. (See Report.)

The following resolution was presented and passed:

Resolved, That the Secretary be hereby instructed to publish four thousand copies of the Minutes of this session as the official journal of the session; that the Minutes be sent to the Presiding Elders in quantities proportioned to the number of members in full connection in each district; that the Presiding Elders distribute them to the Preachers in charge in proportion to the number of members in full connection on each charge, and settle with the Secretary within sixty days after they receive the Minutes; that each Preacher be required to pay for his quota of Minutes at the time he receives them; and that the Secretary be hereby authorized in estimating the cost of the Minutes to include the cost of any blanks or of any incidental expenses that he or the Statistical Secretary or the Treasurer may necessarily incur.

H. N. Herrick.
W. S. Birch.
C. W. Lynch.
A. E. Mahin.
Thomas Stabler.

Stenographers.—A bill of $20 was presented for the services of stenographers for the select numbers. The bill was allowed, and a collection was ordered and taken sufficient for the purpose.

Statistical Secretary.—The Statistical Secretary then read the Recapitulations of Statistics, and the tables were ordered printed in the Minutes.

On motion of M. A. Harlan, it was ordered that a column be added to the Statistical Blanks for a report as to whether our own Sunday-school Publications are used in each charge.

Constitutional Questions.—The Bishop then presented to the Conference the Propositions for Constitutional Amendments.

On Proposition I the vote was as follows: Ayes, none; nays, 137.

On Proposition II—(a) Ayes, none; nays, 126. (b) Ayes, 25; nays, 117.

On Proposition III—Ayes, 141; nays, none.

Winchester.—On motion of J. W. Cain, it was ordered that the Secretary be requested to inform the Official Board of the Church at Winchester of our appreciation of their repeated invitations to come to their city, but that it was not thought best to do so now in view of the agitation in regard to boundary lines.

Program Committee.—The following resolution was presented and passed:

Resolved, That W. S. Birch and H. J. Norris shall prepare a suitable program for our next session.

John H. Bickford.
C. H. Wilkinson.
L. A. Beeks.

Examining Committees.—The nominations for Examining Committees were read and approved. (See Report.)

The list of the Conference Boards of Church Location were read and approved.

William Peck.—The Committee on Conference Relations, to whom was referred the case of William Peck, reported in favor of granting him a superannuated relation. On motion, it was ordered that such relation be granted.

Sylvester Billheimer.—Sylvester Billheimer was, on the recommendation of the said committee, granted a Supernumerary Relation.

Thirteenth Question.—The Thirteenth Question was resumed, and the character of C. O. Merica was passed.

Resolutions—The following resolution of thanks was introduced and passed:

Resolved, That our thanks are due and are hereby tendered to Judge

Vaughn, and George Huffman, Sheriff of Wells county, for the use of rooms in the court-house, granted the select number, to their great comfort; also, to J. J. Todd & Son, for use of their office for select number.

H. J. Norris. C. S. Harrison.
M. Mahin. H. Bridge.
W. R. Wones.

Also, the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Conference be extended to the officers and employes of the Exchange Bank for courtesies and favors shown.

C. King.
L. J. Naftzger.

Also, the following resolution was presented and unanimously passed by a rising vote:

Resolved, That our grateful thanks are due and are hereby tendered to our dear Bro. Wade and the Committee on Entertainment for their untiring efforts in arranging for the comfort and entertainment of this Session of the Conference. Also, to the members of our Church and the citizens of Bluffton, who have so hospitably thrown open their doors to receive us. Also, to the organist, Miss Lela Biel, for her attendance upon the devotional meetings and all other services; and, to the members of the choir, for the excellent music rendered; and, to all others who have contributed to our comfort and enjoyment in the way of music; to the post-mistress, Miss Nellie Mason; and, to the publishers of the Daily, for their full, accurate and well-written report of the proceedings, making it one of the best we have ever had. Also, to Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Daugherty and the Epworth League for the elegant and very enjoyable reception tendered the Conference and visitors. We shall also remember with pleasure our visit, and hope at some future time to come again.

The following was presented by the Official Board of the M. E. Church at Bluffton, and, on motion of C. G. Hudson, was ordered printed in the Journal:

BLUFFTON, IND., April 9, 1894.

Bishop Goodsell and Members of the North Indiana Conference:

BRETHREN—The members of the Official Board of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Bluffton, Ind., extend to you the fraternal greetings of the members of this church and congregation, and desire to say, in their behalf, that they have very greatly enjoyed your presence and the session of the Conference in our midst.

Your coming was hailed with delight by our people and the citizens of this community, and your stay has been one continued season of joy and pleasure to us.

We have learned to love still more earnestly the splendid men of God of this magnificent Conference. But above and beyond all else, we have been strengthened in our purpose to be more faithful unto the church and more devoted to Christ.

We regret that you must soon disappear from our firesides and from this our church home, which has been hallowed and rendered more sacred by your presence here the past week.

To you, Bishop Goodsell and brethren of the Conference, we say, with all our hearts, come again. We shall hail with pleasurable emotions your early return to Bluffton. If we have failed in aught to make your visit with us desirable and happy it has been by accident and not by intention.

Long will the pleasant memories of these associations linger in our minds and hearts. We are inspired to nobler efforts in the cause of the Master, by reason of your sojourn with us. As you go to your varied fields of labor, our love, best wishes and prayers go with you all.

Jacob J. Todd,
Committee on behalf of the Official Board.

Also the following, which was unanimously adopted by a rising vote:

Resolved, That we greatly rejoice in the arrangement of Providence and the plan of the Committee of Bishops that sent to us Bishop Daniel A. Goodsell. His excellent and instructive address to the class, his evangelical and inspiring sermon on Sabbath, and his manner of conducting the Ordination services have been wonderfully helpful and impressive.

We shall ever remember his first visit to us with the greatest of pleasure, and shall pray the Father's blessing upon him, that he may spare his life, and bless his administration. We also hereby express the desire that he may come to us again in the near future.

Collection.—On motion of O. S. Harrison, a collection was taken for William Peck, and turned over to him, amounting to $79.03.

Adjournment.—On motion of C. G. Hudson, it was ordered that after devotional services and reading the list of appointments, the Conference stand adjourned sine die.

Journal.—The Journal up to this point was read and approved.

Bishop Goodsell announced the transfer of J. L. Harriwell from the Holston Conference, addressed the Conference in suitable remarks, after which he led in prayer, and then read the appointments. The Benediction was pronounced by Bishop Goodsell, and the North Indiana Conference stood adjourned without day.

REPORTS.

ON EDUCATION.

To the Members of the North Indiana Conference:

Your Committee on Education presents the following report:

DE PAUW UNIVERSITY.

From the Year Book, Visitors' Report, and other information in our hands, we learn of increased prosperity in all the schools of our great university, and call the attention of all our people to the great opportunity it affords for a liberal education. We learn, however, with regret that the income of the university is much less than the actual demands to meet obligations. We recommend that $2,000 be apportioned among the districts for the current expenses of the University, and that all our people be urged to contribute liberally to the endowment fund.

The Hon. R. Wes. McBride, having tendered his resignation as Trustee, we recommend that it be accepted and that W. D. Parr be elected as his successor for the unexpired term, and also for the succeeding term, which begins September 1, 1894. We also recommend that J. K. Walts and G. H. Hill be continued as Visitors till September 1, 1894, that W. M. Nelson be elected a third visitor, to serve till September 1, 1894, and that M. S. Marble and S. Light be elected Visitors to serve two years, commencing September 1, 1894.

We further recommend that the question of alumni representation on the Board of Trustees, which was printed in the Minutes of the last session of the Conference, for consideration at this session, be indefinitely postponed.

DEPAUW SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY.

We call special attention to the courses in Exegetical, Historical, Systematic and Practical Theology, together with other opportunities for intellectual acquisition and spiritual culture offered by this school to all young men expecting to enter the ministry.

GARRETT BIBLICAL INSTITUTE.

H. C. Smith and J. W. Cain, Visitors to this flourishing institution, present an inspiring report full of hopefulness for its future. We recommend B. A. Kemp and F. M. Stone as Visitors for the ensuing year.

TAYLOR UNIVERSITY.

This new and promising institution, under the control of the local preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church, is located at Upland, Ind., within the boundaries of this Conference. A good course of study with an excellent corps of intructors insures for it a liberal patronage.

The Year Book and other documents concerning Boston University and Boston School of Theology set forth the opportunities and advantages of these most excellent institutions.

CHILDREN'S DAY.

We recognize the important work of the Board of Education, and urge the observance of Children's Day in all our Churches; the use of the program prepared by the Board, and that the collection be devoted only to the children's fund, as required by the Discipline, and that no other educational collection be taken on Children's Day.

Respectfully submitted,

M. S. Marble, Secretary.

F. G. Browne, Chairman.

FREEDMEN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION SOCIETY.

Your Committee on the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society submit the following report:

We rejoice in the increasing prosperity of our work in the South. The past year has been the most remarkable in the history of the Society. Under its management we have forty-five institutions of learning, thirteen of which are of collegiate grade. More than ten thousand pupils attended our schools. In view of these facts we dare not retreat from the position we have taken, and the laurels we have won.

We deeply regret the falling off of the receipts in the last conference year from our collections.

We would urge the interesting of our people in the literature of the Society by the introduction of the Christian Educator, and the use of the responsive service in the presentation of this cause.

We entreat our pastors to bring up their full apportionments. The apportionment for the coming year is $3,500.

We would further recommend that the collection for this cause be taken on its merits, the first Sunday in July.

S. Light,
C. H. Brown,
W. E. Grose,
Committee.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Your Committee submits the following report:

WHEREAS, The Sunday-school interests of our country are especially dear and important to Methodism; therefore, be it

Resolved, That "Good Tidings Day" be observed in all our churches.

Resolved, That we recommend that the Committee on Program next year provide for an anniversary meeting at the Conference, and that they provide suitable speakers for the same.

We recommend for President C. H. Murray; Vice-Presidents, R. H. Smith, S. Billheimer, D. H. Guild; Secretary, J. A. Beatty.

F. S. Stewart, Secretary.

TRACT CAUSE.

We heartily indorse tract distribution, because it often reaches a class inaccessible to the pastor; it is adapted to every case of need; it is inexpensive; because of its brevity commends itself to the reader; can be circulated with comparative ease.

The Tract Society is anxious that every pastor should avail himself of the free grants of tracts for distribution in his charge.

The Tract Society asks of the Church an annual contribution of fifty thousand dollars, of which seven hundred is apportioned to this Conference.

Your committee would recommend that every pastor be urged to take the collection for this cause.

Amount raised last year.....$433

W. F. M. S. AND W. H. M. S.

WHEREAS, The great Missionary enterprises of the Methodist Episcopal Church, conducted by its devoted and consecrated women, have resulted in untold blessings to vast numbers, both at home and in foreign lands; and

WHEREAS, In many places, especially in China and in British India, they are carrying "the good tidings of great joy" to multitudes of their sisters, to whom they alone can minister; and

WHEREAS, Their zeal and Christian philanthropy have quickened the entire church, in every department, and contributed greatly to the speedy coming of that glorious time when all "the kingdoms of this world shall become the kingdom of our Lord and His Christ;" therefore be it

Resolved, That we, as ministers, will heartily co-operate with the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, and with the Woman's Home Missionary Society; and further be it

Resolved, That we memorialize the General Conference to provide for the ordination of deaconesses in foreign lands, in order that the millions of secluded women may have an opportunity to obey the Savior's commands, relative to the sacraments of Baptism and of the Lord's Supper.

J. M. Driver,
Chairman.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

The providential blessings upon the church through the medium of the Epworth League and Junior Epworth League are cause for devout and exultant thanksgiving.

To more thoroughly indoctrinate our hosts of young people and hold them in spiritual loyalty to our beloved church, we urge the organization of Chapters at each appointment within the bounds of this Conference.

We congratulate the State organization on its efficient officers, and extend them a cordial invitation to our charges.

We nominate the following Conference Officers for the coming year: J. K. Walts, President; L. A. Beeks, Vice-President; J. H. Jackson, Secretary; M. A. Harlan, Treasurer.

J. K. Walts, Chairman.

M. A. Harlan, Secretary.

BOOK CONCERN.

Your committee recommend the following:

1. That we will endeavor more and more to put our own literature into our homes and families.

2. That the publishers of our Advocates reduce the subscription price of these papers as soon as they can do so without loss.

3. That we congratulate out publishers and the editors of our Advocates for their success in all the departments of their work.

J. W. Lowry, Secretary. H. Bridge, Chairman.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

Your Committee on the American Bible Society would respectfully report as follows:

That we heartily indorse the American Bible Society, and that we plan for a collection for it in connection with our other benevolences in all our charges; that we approve its undenominational character, believing it to be one of the most efficient of societies in promoting the unification of Protestantism.

We appreciate the faithful work of our District Superintendent, the Rev. W. J. Vigus, D. D., and we will welcome him to our charges and pulpits whenever he can come among us.

L. E. Knox, Secretary. J. E. Ervin, Chairman.

TEMPERANCE REPORT.

Inasmuch as our great church has most strongly and emphatically placed herself on record before the civilized world as being uncompromisingly opposed to the liquor traffic in every form, and advocates Prohibition as the only reasonable and successful method for its complete overthrow; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, as a Conference, renew our annual purpose to fight this gigantic foe in every possible legitimate way.

Resolved, That we emphasize more strongly in our Sunday-schools and Epworth Leagues the great curse of the traffic, financially, physically, intellectually and spiritually, and in harmony with the action of our last General Conference, we urge the organization of "Christian Temperance Leagues" in all our charges.

Resolved, That we earnestly advocate that all Christian voters consistently harmonize their action at the ballot-box with their temperance principles and prayers.

Resolved, That a committee of one from each district be appointed to confer with like committees from other Conferences, churches and temperance organizations, to plan and work for the suppression and overthrow of the saloon.

C. U. Wade,
G. N. Eldridge,
J. M. Haines,
Committee.

POPULAR AMUSEMENTS.

We observe with regret the tendency of our young people to form circles for amusement of questionable character, such as select dancing parties, pedro and progressive euchre parties, attending horse races and theaters, all of which have a demoralizing effect; therefore; be it

Resolved, That we will use all proper means to dissuade our people from indulging in any amusements that weaken moral power and lower the standard of consistent Christian character.

Resolved, That while we are in sympathy with every organization that develops morality and elevates the standard of manhood and womanhood, we believe that the Church and its organized means of grace should be preeminently above the lodge and all other societies for social intercourse.

Resolved, That our pulpits and press will continue to cry out against this tendency, and recommend and insist upon a faithful adherence to the requirements of the Discipline.

A. Cone, Secretary. J. B. Alleman, Chairman.

SABBATH DESECRATION.

Your Committee on Sabbath Desecration respectfully submit the following report:

WHEREAS, Sabbath desecration is one of the great evils of our times, and observation and history prove that just in proportion as the Sabbath is violated, crimes of all kinds increase; and,

WHEREAS, God's command is plainly against Sabbath desecration, and sacred history shows that God's people have invariably been punished for it; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we will do all we can to close all stores, meat markets and restaurants, stop all printing presses, discourage Sunday visiting, and all forms of worldly pleasures on the Lord's day, and use our influence to direct the minds of the people into channels of religious thought concerning the Sabbath.

Resolved, That we recommend the literature of the "American Sabbath Union," which is aggressive and helpful, and ought to be in the hands of all our people.

Resolved, That we will read these resolutions to our people, and preach at least one sermon on this subject the coming year, emphasizing the command of God to "Turn away thy feet from the Sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day; and call the Sabbath a delight; the holy of the Lord and honorable; and shall honor him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words."

W. E. Murray,
Committee.

WESLEY HOSPITAL.

We, your committee, have heard with interest the Superintendent of Wesley Hospital, Rev. Joseph Odgers, and we rejoice that Methodism is taking hold of this important interest. We regard it as very important that Methodism should have a hospital in the Northwest that will be second to none. We are also glad to note that the Conferences already visited have become affiliating Conferences by the endowment of one or more beds.

B. S. Hollopeter,
Charles H. Murry,
Committee.

REPORT OF THE FIRST SELECT NUMBER.

To the North Indiana Conference:

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN: Your select number appointed to hear the case of W. M. Van Slyke, who was charged by certain members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in Goshen, Ind., of the North Indiana Conference, as being guilty of immoral conduct, the specific charge being fraudulent business, met in the Methodist Episcopal Church, in Bluffton, Ind., April 4, 1894. The following were present: M. Mahin, Chairman; L. A. Beeks, Secretary; Counsel for the Church, O. S. Harrison, H. J. Norris, H. Bridge; Counsel for the Defendant, M. H. Mendenhall, G. B. Work, and the following select number: R. S. Reed, C. H. Wilkinson, W. M. Nelson, J. S. McElwee, A. S. Wooten, J. B. Alleman, M. H. Mott, P. J. Albright, R. F. Brewington, I. W. Singer, T. F. Frech, S. C. Norris, J. A. Lewellen, J. H. Bickford, W. R. Wones.

After a careful and thorough investigation as to all the charges and specifications we find the defendant guilty of imprudent and unchristian conduct, and fix as a penalty that he be brought before the Conference, in executive session, and be admonished by the Bishop, and that his character pass.

REPORT OF THE SECOND SELECT NUMBER.

The second select number, in the case of the Methodist Episcopal Church vs. George S. V. Howard, charged with obtaining money under false pretense, report as follows:

The select number was called together at 2 o'clock, Friday afternoon, April 6, 1894, the following being present: J. W. Welch, Chairman; W. R. Suman, Secretary; Counsel: plaintiff, S. C. Miller and W. H. Daniel; dedendant, C. H. Brown and W. D. Parr; select number, B. S. Hollopeter, F. G. Brown, J. M. Haines, J. D. Belt, A. H. Currie, Eli Davis, J. A. Ruly, F. A. Fish, Geo. W. Greene, A. Cone, J. W. Bowen, J. L. Ramsey, A. M. Patterson, R. H. Smith, W. S. Stewart.

After hearing the evidence in the case and argument by counsel, we, the select number, to whom was referred the case of Rev. Geo. S. V. Howard, find him guilty as charged in the complaint, and fix as the penalty that he is, therefore, expelled from the ministry and membership of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The counsel for defense gave notice of appeal.

REPORT OF THE FIRST SELECT NUMBER.

To the North Indiana Conference:

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN—Your select number appointed to hear the case of D. C. Woolpert, who was charged by certain members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in Goshen, Ind., of the North Indiana Conference, as being guilty of immoral conduct, the specific charges being plagiarism, lying and attempted bribery, met in the Court House, in Bluffton, Ind., April 6, 1894, at 10:00 o'clock A. M.

The following were present:

M. Mahin, Chairman; L. A. Beeks, Secretary; Counsel for the Church, O. S. Harrison, H. Bridge, H. J. Norris; Counsel for the Defendant, M. H. Mendenhall, G. B. Work, J. H. Jackson, C. G. Hudson, and the following select number: R. S. Reed, E. W. Osborn, W. M. Nelson, I. W. Singer, J. S. McElwee, A. S. Wooten, J. B. Alleman, M. H. Mott, P. J. Albright, R. F. Brewington; T. F. Frech, S. C. Norris, J. A. Lewellen, J. H. Bickford, W. R. Wones.

The charges and specifications were all carefully examined, and we find the defendant guilty of the first charge, as sustained by specifications one and three, he having pleaded guilty to the same, and that we find him not guilty in each and all of the remaining charges and specifications, and that we fix as a penalty that he be suspended from the ministry for the period of one year. The select number then adjourned.

L. A. Beeks, Secretary. M. Mahin, Chairman.

ACCOUNTS OF THE SECRETARY.

Your committee, to which was referred the accounts of the Conference Secretary, for auditing purposes, beg leave to report that we find the accounts to be correct and in very accurate condition. MEMOIRS.

THE REV. GEORGE W. BOWERS.

The aged father, whose name has been the first to be called at our annual sessions for years, a name to which the word "present" has been regularly answered, shall now no more be called among us. He responds elsewhere.

George Wells Bowers was born in Muskingum county, Ohio, July 12, 1811. He died at his son's house, in the city of Indianapolis, March 1, 1894, of diabetes, at the ripe age of 82 years, 7 months and 19 days.

Of Brother Bowers's early life, few details have come to hand. We all know what Ohio was 82 years ago, and we have heard how many and great were the hardships of pioneer life. He made his start in the divine path in his boyhood, and maintained the even tenor of his way until the end. Twelve years of age, only, was he when he was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church.

When he was about 26 years of age he determined fully to yield to the call to the ministry, and was licensed to preach July 15, 1837. In the latter part of the same month he was admitted on trial in the Ohio Conference, and immediately transferred to the Indiana Conference, not knowing of the action until it was done. He was ordained Deacon in 1839, and Elder in 1841. Upon the division of the Indiana Conference, he became an original member of the North Indiana Conference, remaining in its borders to the day of his death.

Brother Bowers had the following appointments: Mississiniwa, one year; Portland mission, one year; Connersville, one year; Rushville, one year; Knightstown, one year; Greenfield, one year; Albany, one year; La Porte Station, one year; Hartford City, three years; Jonesboro, two years; Marion Station, one year; Marion District, four years; Jonesboro, one year; Superannuated, two years; Lanesville, one year; Fishersburgh, two years; Bethlehem, one year; Greenfield, two years; Albany, two years; Hartford, one year; Supply, three years, at various times. In 1870 he received a superannuated relation, lasting for about 24 years. At his death, he was in the 57th year of his ministry.

Brother Bowers was married to Evalina Jones in the year 1836. One son was born to them, who died in the service of his country. His wife died in the year 1840, leaving one child. His second marriage was to Brittania S. A. Millard in 1842, who survives him with five children.

So few of us knew Brother Bowers in his prime, and so many have seen him in his age only, that we are unable to realize the man he was in his power. Our fathers declare of him that he was above the usual average in preaching ability, strong, powerful, convincing. Those who have had his help in revivals in recent days, speak with earnestness of the appropriateness, eloquence and spirituality of his sermons. He was strong in doctrine, well grounded in "the faith once delivered to the saints," and powerful in debate. His last days were full of triumph.

At the General Conference in Indianapolis in 1856, he was one of the honored delegates from this Conference to that body.

Brother Bowers went about doing good. He was modest, quiet, pleasant. Through tribulations, the afflictions of disease and the infirmities of old age, he held fast, as one "knowing in whom he had believed." His disease made such rapid ravages, that he died suddenly at the home of his son, whither he had gone for treatment.

His remains were taken to Dunkirk, Ind., were they were interred under the direction of the Rev. C. E. White, assisted by Rev. F. T. Simpson, and many of his brethren in the ministry.

THE REV. SAMUEL J. McELWEE.

The Rev. Samuel J. McElwee, son of Jesse and Rebecca McElwee, was born in Darke county, Ohio, August 20, 1845, and died in North Indianapolis, Indiana, August 10th, 1893.

He came with his parents to Indiana and located in Miami county in 1851, where he grew to manhood. His school advantages were such as the common schools of that day afforded.

When 17 years old, at the call of his country, he enlisted in the 134th Regiment, Indiana Volunteers, and served three months.

He was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church at the age of 14 years. At once he began exhorting sinners to turn to Christ. He was very helpful to his pastor as the boy exhorter, among the people on the home circuit, until at the age of 18 years he was licensed to preach, when he began his life's work. April, 1865, he joined the North Indiana Conference. Here he spent his energies and life, with the exception of five years he spent in the Michigan Conference, where he went seeking health for his wife. Our brother was ordained Elder twenty-five years ago to-day by Bishop Simpson. January 27th, 1869, he was married to Miss Anna Belle Mozingo, who has shared with him the toils and joys of an itinerant's life. Three children were given to our brother and sister, two of whom still remain to mourn with their dear mother their very great loss. Brother McElwee was a man of positive convictions, yet broad and liberal. He had a strong will and great energy. As a preacher he was thoughtful and instructive. His sermons and prayers were full of pathos and tenderness, carrying conviction to the heart of the hearer, causing the unsaved to consider their ways and stirring the hearts of the believers to greater activity in their Master's work. Many whom he brought to Christ hold his memory sacred. His sickness was of more than three years' duration, and complicated in character. At intervals he was able to attend to some business affairs. Occasionally he attended some of the services of the church. For the last few days he lingered with us there were scenes and utterances never to be forgotten by those who were permitted to be at his bedside. He had strong desires to live and was of the conviction that the Lord had other work for him to do in the church.

On inquiring of him concerning his future prospects he said: "I have been looking the ground over, and as to the work of the church, the interests of my home, my family and loved ones, the balance is in favor of life; but for me it is better over there. So I concluded I might be over selfish in my desire to live. I then called my family in to a little prayer meeting, where we consecrated all to God and his keeping. After each had prayed in turn, I had such a revelation no tongue can tell, it was wonderful! glorious!"

After this, though his disease was distressing in nature, so much so that it kept his body in constant motion, yet his mind was clear and he was never heard to complain.

He dwelt much upon thoughts pertaining to spiritual things. He would often indulge in expressions like the following: "The room is so beautiful, the surroundings are so sweet; what visions of rapture I have just had; what illustrations for sermons!" When it became difficult for him to be understood we could often catch such expressions as victory, rapture, triumphant. On the last morning he called wife, son and daughter, and after an effort to sing "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," with them, he said, "O, how sweet." He then seemed to enter into an effort of exhortation, and closed the scene with a prayer; the farewell kiss was given and after lingering until two o'clock he sweetly fell asleep in Jesus.

The funeral took place on Saturday afternoon, August 12, 1893, from the Methodist Episcopal Church in Kokomo, Indiana, the church in which Brother and Sister McElwee were married, Rev. W. D. Parr in charge, assisted by Revs. W. J. Vigus, H. J. Norris, C. G. Hudson and L. A. Retts. The interment was in Crown Hill Cemetery. Well done good and faithful servant.

L. A. Retts.

MARTHA STEVENS WOOTEN.

Martha Stevens, daughter of S. B. and A. Stevens, was born in Clinton county, Ind., February 25, 1859, and died in Auburn, Ind., April 7, 1893, aged 34 years, 1 month and 12 days.

She was happily converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church when but a child, and from that time until her death lived a beautiful Christian life, and was deeply interested in all the work of the church. On the evening of February 25, 1880, she was united in marriage to our beloved Brother Andrew S. Wooten, and for over thirteen years gladly shared with him all the experiences incident to such a life. She dearly loved the work of the ministry, and esteemed her privileges in Christian work as a glorious honor and blessed opportunity to work for the Master.

Much of the time she was actively engaged as a teacher in the Sunday-school and in the work of the Epworth League. She was also active in the Woman's Foreign and Woman's Home Missionary Societies, the Ladies' Aid Society, and in the various local enterprises of the church.

It was a delight to her to visit the homes of the people and to form the acquaintance of all who could be influenced for Christ. Her pattern was the divine Lord, whose meat and drink it was to do the will of His Father.

Three children were given to Brother and Sister Wooten. To them she was a tender, loving, devoted, patient mother. She was intelligent, thoughtful and Christ-like in the home and in all her relations to her husband. Her sweet home life will ever linger as a precious memory in the minds of her grief-stricken husband and children.

For many months she was a great sufferer. Daily she climbed her Calvary of affliction and suffered physical crucifixion. As her bodily strength failed, her spiritual life became more and more glorious. She moved toward death like a conqueror. Her room became the very vestibule of heaven.

On the evening of the 6th of April she said: "This has been one of the most restful days I have had for six months." The awful cough had ceased; sweetly she had lain all the day. She said to her husband: "I have had a clear revelation from Christ that I will die to-night. It is all right; God will take care of my family. I will have to suffer much to-night, but the end is near. My Savior suffered upon the cross and I can suffer, too." She then requested her husband to sing, and he and the little daughter Florence sang five or six songs before she would consent for them to cease. Early on the morning of the 7th she passed away, dying sweetly in the arms of Jesus.

While no minister's wife ever loved the work more than she, and no woman ever loved and respected husband and children more than she, yet no child ever started on a visit with more delight than she manifested as she went to the mansions of light. Her victory was absolutely complete.

On the morning of April 9th her casket was carried into the church where she had so often worshiped, and her funeral services were conducted by her Presiding Elder, Rev. A. E. Mahin, assisted by the pastors of the Presbyterian and Evangelical Lutheran Churches, they having dismissed their congregations to attend. Her remains were laid to rest amidst flowers and evergreens in Woodlawn Cemetery to await the glorious consummation.

L. J. Naftzger.

MRS. SARAH M. MENDENHALL.

Sarah M. Truesdell, late consort of the Rev. Dr. M. H. Mendenhall, so long our Secretary, and still one of the most influential members of our Conference, was the daughter of S. W. Truesdell, M. D., and Mary A. Truesdell, of Kokomo, Ind. She was born in Centerville, Mich., May 9, 1839. She died in the city of Elkhart, Ind., May 11, 1893, aged fifty-four years and two days.

She was converted in childhood, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church at the age of sixteen. She at once became active in church work, and formed the habit of being faithful to all its means of grace.

Our sister was married to Dr. Mendenhall, March 9, 1857, and immediately entered upon the blessed career of an itinerant minister's wife—that life so full of self-denial, yet mingled with the richest joys—seeking and finding the truest friendships, and realizing more thoroughly than in any other calling the true theory of religion.

Together in devout and holy consecration, the bereaved husband and now sainted wife journeyed to their various appointments, both station and district, now in the sorrows and now in the joys of a successful ministry. Not being blessed with children, their natures flowed together in sweet accord and heart's love.

"The sweetest lives are those to duty wed,
Whose deeds, both great and small,
Are close-knit strands of one unbroken thread,
When love enobles all.
The world may sound no trumpets, ring no bells,
The Book of Life the shining record tells."

As a Christian, Sister Mendenhall was deeply earnest and devoted; bright and cheerful. The hopefulness of her religion filled her pathway with encouragement to others. No dark or trying experience hid from her the silver lining. Her frank honesty of purpose, the sincerity of her sweet spirit, her exemplary Christian character, as well as her genial and kindly intercourse with the people, won many to Christ. Because of her life and work in the church, "many shall rise up and call her blessed."

Although no bigot, yet Mrs. Mendenhall was a thorough Methodist. The church of her choice commanded her reverence and loyalty. With her all the means of grace of the church were seasons of interest and power. Most of all, she was imbued with the esprit du corps of the itineracy; for she loved the spirit and economy of Methodism. Her ability in the church was great and ever ready. For some years she was a class-leader for the young people. She was a skillful teacher in the Sunday-school, where she charmed her classes, while she had but one point in view—the conversion of her classes.

Again, the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society enlisted her love and services, both publicly and privately. She held the presidency of this society in both the Richmond and Goshen Districts, as well as that of the Elkhart Auxiliary, and at her death was one of its vice-presidents.

She was a great reader of church literature, as well as of the highest order of the general literature of her time.

But in her home life she excelled. She practiced her belief that a wife's highest sphere is the home, and that here a woman can best promote the interests of her husband and family.

Her faith was fervent and pronounced; she gave rich things to those who came to her for spiritual counsel. Her bible is well worn, marked on almost every page, showing the passages which built her up into a rich Christian experience.

Kind and charitable, she uttered no word needing repentance. Her last audible prayer was that grand stanza—

"Jesus, lover of my soul."

At the conclusion of the stanza her voice failed, and at the midnight hour she passed into the morning to finish—

"Safe into the haven guide,
O receive my soul at last."

Her illness assumed alarming symptoms on the morning of the 10th inst. About midnight she was seized again with an attack of heart failure, and in a few minutes, without a struggle, she entered the eternal city.

To-day we bow our heads in sorrow, but not as those who have no hope. She hath gone to be with Christ, which is far better. In her death our dear brother has lost his entire family. May the promises of the Gospel that he has so often used to comfort others be now and evermore his sufficient stay until the day of reunion. May he, though with dimmed eyes, behold her as she stands in the heavenly throngs, and sings the great doxology to Him that washed her and made her one of the kings and priests unto God.

Sister Mendenhall's funeral was from Trinity Church, Elkhart, and the services were conducted by Dr. Woolpert, her Presiding Elder, assisted by her pastor, the Rev. J. H. Jackson, and the Rev. William Lash.

When the earth and sea give up their dead, may we be there and behold her raised in glory, honor, incorruption and immortal life.

MRS. CYNTHIA A. BIRCH.

Cynthia Ann Stevens, wife of W. S. Birch, D. D., was the daughter of Caleb and Malinda Stevens. She was born in Butler county, Ohio, January 11, 1827, and died July 12, 1893, making her age 66 years, 6 months and 1 day.

She joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, professing conversion when only nine years old. This was the natural result of her training in a Christian home, both her parents being devoted members of our church.

About 1845 she moved with her father's family and settled in Wabash county, Ind. Immediately their dwelling became a preaching-place and home for the pioneer Methodist minister.

August 28, 1851, our sister was married to her deeply bereaved husband, our brother, Dr. Birch. To their union were given five children, two of whom have preceded their mother to the better world. There remain: Emma, wife of our brother, the Rev. W. H. Daniel; Edward, who lives at Battle Ground, in this State, and Rose, wife of A. R. Hitt, Jr., of Evanston, Ill. Her children being all married, she has left behind her five grandchildren.

Sister Birch loved her home and family most fondly. While she gave an untiring support to her husband in forty-two years of ministerial experience, yet she ever kept in sight that her home was her trust from God her Father.

Her friends are many, scattered all over Indiana, she having lived so long as a pastor's wife, especially in most of the prominent charges in the North Indiana Conference. So sweetly did she adjust herself to her surroundings that no complaint was ever heard against her.

Her religious life was based on a deep, intelligent, scriptural experience. Though a great sufferer of late years, no murmur escaped her lips. Jesus, the Savior of men, was real to her, and she delighted in saying, "He is with me." She treated her going away as she believed it to be—a journey into a most beautiful country. She calmly gave directions as to her affairs, then gave a good-bye and a blessing to each of the loved ones present, and sent to those not by her side her last sweet words. She manifested during all the memorable hour of her departure the mighty spirit of one who had already won the victory. When her work was done, and the shadows crept along, she said, "Let me rest." She loved the church, she loved the ministers of the district, and always urged that the standard of Christ be held higher, not lower, as too often is the tendency in these days.

The pastors of the Kokomo District, as well as a multitude of friends, attended her funeral services, which were under the direction of the pastors in the city of Kokomo, W. D. Parr and F. M. Stone, while the ministers of the district were the pall-bearers. Her remains rest in the beautiful Crown Point Cemetery at Kokomo.

Our brother and his children have the sincerest sympathy not only of the Kokomo District, but of the entire North Indiana Conference, in which Dr. Birch has so long been a prominent figure. Our sister's life was a blessing to the world. "She hath done what she could." Hope sings in this sad hour, "Some sweet day we shall meet our loved ones over there."

MRS. EFFIE K. HARRISON.

Mrs. Effie Kerr Harrison, wife of Rev. O. S. Harrison, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Kerr, was born in Henry county, Indiana, October 26, 1851, and died May 26, 1893, in Cambridge City, Ind.

She was married February 27, 1870. This union was blessed with three children, one son and two daughters, all of whom, with their father, remain to mourn their great loss. These all rejoice in the love of God, and treasure in loving remembrance, the patient spirit, earnest prayers, and faithful teaching of this good woman. She was a devoted wife, and constant in her duties as a mother.

In her early life our sister gave her heart to the Lord and followed after him, ever seeking to "grow in grace and in the knowledge of the truth." Entering the calling of the holy ministry with her husband, she was cheerful in its work, and sharing all the burdens of the itinerancy, "knowing that these light afflictions work for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory."

Sister Harrison was generally well until the last four years of her life. During these years she was a great sufferer. With the spirit of a Christian heroine, she bore her pain, which was great at times, with no thought of complaining. Several times during her illness, as the end drew nearer, and she was conscious the closing was not far off, she would call her husband and children to her side, where they would spend much time in comforting conversation.

Her faith never wavered. Her conversation concerning death and the future was always confident, calm and peaceful. A doubt never seemed to cross her mind. Her last words were, "Jesus, O Jesus, how beautiful." In reply to the inquiry of her husband, "Are you ready?" her face lighting up with a smile, she answered, "Yes, O yes." Her death was triumphant. She lives in heaven, waiting the coming of her dear ones. The funeral was conducted by her Presiding Elder, Rev. T. Stabler, D. D., assisted by Rev. L. J. Naftzger and several brethren. In accordance with her request, her body was placed in the cemetery at Cambridge City, that she might rest among the dear friends she loved. The high esteem in which she was held was evidenced by the large attendance of many friends, including relatives and ministers from a distance.

L. A. Beeks.

MRS. MARY JANE CHURCH.

Mary Jane Church, only daughter of James and Eliza Douglas, was born in Ontario, Richland county, Ohio, October 7, 1837. She entered into rest at her home in North Manchester, October 2, 1893, at the age of 55 years 11 months and 25 days.

When but a small child she moved with her parents to Indiana, and settled near Leo, Allen county. At the age of nine years she was left fatherless, with five brothers. The country was new, but with industry and frugality the family was brought up in respectability.

In her seventeenth year she was united in marriage to Jackson Zimmerman. To them were born two sons. On the 25th of May, 1880, this companionship was broken by death.

September 1, 1881, she was married to Rev. E. P. Church, of the North Indiana Conference. For twelve years she has shared with him the toils and triumphs of the pastoral work. She easily adjusted herself to this new and wide field of Christian activity, for she had been a worker for the Master from her childhood. She was fully a helpmeet to her husband, taking a deep interest in every part of the work, and making her influence felt for good in every charge. Exceedingly conscientious, quiet and unassuming, she was even inclined to undervalue her own ability. Her friendships were true and lasting.

Her last sickness was long and severe, continuing four years. Her disease baffled the skill of the best physicians; but through it all she was patient as a true child of God. Some days before her departure she became fully conscious that the end was near. She did not shrink, but calmly said, "I do not see why He does not come and take me." Again and again she expressed her confidence in the Savior, as one who was caring for her. When the body no longer responded to the pain, there came into her face an expression of great peace and rest. When her companion asked her if Jesus was with her, she distinctly whispered that he was, and declared, "All is well." He then asked her once more to speak to him, but the lips were sealed. He then asked for a last look, but an unseen hand had closed the eyelids. Then, said he, as he held her by the hand, "Can you not give me one more token that all is well?" repeating the words of the poet:

"On Christ the solid rock I stand,
All other ground is sinking sand."

At this she firmly grasped his hand and held it as her last evidence of implicit trust, until death released the grasp. She fully lived for Him who died for her. She lived even while giving back her life to Him who gave and redeemed it; and because He lives, she lives for evermore.

The funeral occurred Thursday afternoon, from the Methodist Episcopal Church in North Manchester, conducted by Rev. C. W. Lynch, Presiding Elder of the Warsaw District, assisted by the Rev. J. M. Driver, of Columbia City.

MRS. PARTHENIA E. GREENE.

Parthenia Eva LeValley was born in Jay county, Indiana, August 31, 1864, and died at New Burlington, Indiana, August 24, 1893. She was united in marriage to Rev. George W. Greene, December 11, 1883. In the following April they began the work of the itinerant ministry in the Methodist Episcopal Church at New Corner, Indiana. Two years were spent at this place, three at Pennville, three at McCordsville, their last charge being New Burlington. She was the mother of three children. The oldest and youngest passed to the heavenly land before their mother. The other, a darling daughter, still remains to mourn with her father her mother's death.

Sister Greene was converted at the early age of nine years, under the labors of Rev. A. M. Patterson, at Bethel Church near Albany, Indiana. She experienced the blessing of entire sanctification in the year 1885. She was unusually beloved by all who knew her. Faithful and true to her profession as a Christian, she ever let her light shine. She was a constant reader of the Bible, reading it through once a year for the last several years. The Church was an idol of her heart. It received her faithful interest and devoted love. She was always acquainting herself with its methods, remembering to the last its benevolent interests by contributions from her own savings. Our beloved sister knew the nature of her disease and that she could not recover. For eight years she battled against the enemy, and for one and one half years before her death she became more and more convinced she could not get well. She was patient, resigned and full of faith—never wavering. As her death approached she was ready. Every arrangement for her funeral she planned in detail, as if going on a journey. When her husband asked her, "Mamma, are you happy?" she said, "Yes, praise the Lord, very happy; it's all light." "Is it far across?" "No, just a step; O, it pays to be a Christian." Many such expressions passed her lips to be cherished by her friends as sweet mementoes of her good life and happy end. Thus our sister fell asleep in Jesus. Memorial services were held in the Methodist Episcopal Church in New Burlington, conducted by her Presiding Elder, Rev. H. N. Herrick, assisted by several other ministers in the District. Appropriate addresses were made by Rev. P. J. Albright and Rev. William Peck. Interment in Beech Grove Cemetery, Muncie, Indiana.

MARY ANN GREENMAN.

Mary Ann Goodykoontz was born in the State of Virginia, October 7, 1826, and departed this life at Marion, Ind., December 11, 1893, aged 67 years, 2 months and 4 days. At an early age she came with her parents to Indiana, and spent her girlhood days with them on a farm near Anderson.

About the year 1864 she was married to the Rev. Madison E. Hansley, and shortly afterward they made their home in Marion. Mr. Hansley died August 7, 1888. After a widowhood of nearly five years, she was married to our dear Brother Greenman, April 12, 1893. This union proved to be a blessed one in every way, and seemed a fitting beginning to what promised to be years of unalloyed happiness. But alas! God's ways are not our ways. He had some richer blessing in store for our sister and was not willing that she should longer wait.

She was born and raised under Christian influences, and from early childhood was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Her religious experience was clear and satisfactory. Although she could not give the date of her conversion, said she, "I have always loved God, His church, His ordinances, His people." She enjoyed continually a very distinct consciousness of relationship with Christ. Her profession of religion was full of meaning, not so much because of what she said as because of what she did.

Much of her charitable work will never be known until the Master shall say: "Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye did it unto me."

In the erection of all the churches that adorn the city of Marion she was a faithful and generous helper. She recognized her stewardship, and gladly performed a noble part, transacting all her business with reference to the day of account.

She spoke calmly of her departure, having set her house in order, and acquainted her husband with her plans, she waited in peaceful submission for the Master's call. When it came, quietly and restfully she fell asleep in Jesus.

It seems a strange providence to us that our brother should so soon again be bereaved. But we know that "all things work for good to them that love God." The Master said: "What I do thou knowest not now, but thou shalt know hereafter."

Her funeral was held from the First Church, Marion, conducted by her pastor, Rev. F. T. Simpson, assisted by several brethren.

MRS. TEMPERANCE PAYTON.

The duties of the office of the writer of this memoir cause him to write from time to time to our aged brethren, or to their widows. So for years the missives passed to and fro with Brother Payton. When he passed to his reward, the letters went to his widow. But now that correspondence has ceased; for the wife has gone to be with the husband to rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory.

Temperance Dragoo was born near Pruntytown, Va., September 22, 1819, and died in Rantoul, Ill., August 3, 1893, aged 73 years.

When she was yet quite a young child, her parents removed to Delaware county, Indiana, and settled near Muncie. Early in life she was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church.

She was married to the Rev. John H. Payton, late of this Conference, March 23, 1837. For thirty-four years she was the itinerant's faithful, helpful wife. Since father Payton passed to the other life, our sister has made her home with her children.

While on a visit at her daughter's this summer past, she was taken suddenly ill. This sickness was but brief, and was borne with the greatest fortitude. Her preparations for death were all made, and when the summons came that the Master had need of her in His presence, she was ready to go. Her Christian life was ever calm, serene, trustful.

Her funeral services were conducted by the Rev. J. O. Collins, of the Illinois Conference.

C. G. Hudson.

ROSANNAH L. HALL.

Rosannah L. Lamport was born in Perry, Geauga county, Ohio, April 29, 1830, and died at Wolcottville, Ind., January 8, 1894, aged nearly sixty-four years.

She came with her parents to La Porte county, Indiana, in 1836 and to Mishawaka, Ind., in 1843. She was married to Rev. Emanuel Hall, August 24, 1848. To this union were born two sons, Orpheus L. and Willie B., both of whom are living. The husband, after thirty-three years of active ministry in the North Indiana Conference, died triumphantly, March 29, 1880.

Mrs. Hall was converted when a child, about the time of the death of her mother. She was a great help to her husband in the long years of his ministry. She was apt and successful in organizing Sunday-schools and in managing children's meetings. In many of the churches served by her husband she took charge of the primary department, catechised the children and held junior temperance meetings, and thus laid influences for good on hundreds of little hearts that have since become earnest and faithful members of the church. She was also greatly interested in home and foreign missionary work, and the last years of her life were especially consecrated to whatever she could do personally or otherwise to spread evangelism in all lands.

Near her closing hours she said: "How glad I am that I did not put off preparation for death until my poor body is thus racked with pain. My preparation was made years ago, now it is all bright and clear."

Mrs. Hall intensely loved her home and her children. Such was her earthly life:

"Like the snow-fall on the river,
A moment white then gone forever."

Her funeral, which, at her request, was private, was held from her late home and, was conducted by her pastor, Rev. C. H. Murray.

Her remains were then taken to Mishawaka, Ind.

She has gone, but her memory is blessed and her faithful Christian life lives over again in the lives of those whom she had impressed for God and the church.
